St Augustine's Got Talent

We need you!!

Harvest Supper - Saturday 19th September

Do you have a talent that you would like to share, sing, dance, play an instrument, tell jokes? If you would like to be involved please contact Lorna Murray.

We can't believe it. Sarah got through to the semi finals of teen queen!!!!.....In order for her to go further in the competition we now need everyone to vote for her!.....to vote you have to text Sarah Wanniaratchy to 84205 or phone 0901 656 1530 and then put her number in ... '43' !!!! But calls/texts cost 60p plus standard network charge. So only if you want to!..... To see her photo on the internet, log onto www.teenqueenuk.com and then click onto '2009 teen princess heats'!!!! She's no 43.

We need your votes because we were in the last round of heats and some of the girls have been on the internet for a lot longer and have lots of votes already.

Statement by Bishop Michael re the Sunday Telegraph

The Be Faithful Press Release says that I would be calling on churches and Christians to repent of capitulating to cultures around them and to refocus on the faith of the Church from down the ages and an authentic mission to the nations. This is what I said to the reporter from the Telegraph. I said that we all needed to repent for straying from God's purpose for us. On being pressed as to whether this included homosexuals, I said something to the effect that yes, we all need to repent when we fall short of God's will and be transformed. I went on to say a little about how Christians should understand marriage and family and the proper expression of our sexual nature. The reporter then asked about the depths of division in the Anglican Communion and how the Fellowship of Confessing Anglicans would assist orthodox Anglicans to be a force for renewal and reformation in the Church.

Such a nuanced discussion falls very far short of the somewhat lurid headlines and reporting in Sunday's Telegraph.

Tim and Leila Hyde completed the Solent Cycle Challenge on 20th June in 12 hours. Could anyone who kindly sponsored them please give their money to Viv Emery or leave it in the church office in the labelled envelope. Cheques can be made out to "Tim Hyde" with "Solent Cycle Challenge" on the back. Any extra donations will, of course, be always welcome!
